

DEEPENING IN THE RADIANT ONE

An Immersive Meditation and Channeling
Retreat with Mary and Lisa

September 21, 2025 - September 25, 2025

The Christine Center

Willard, Wisconsin

To those who are meant to come
we do not call you by name
but by your readiness
by your longing for quiet truth
by the part of you that remembers
how to walk toward yourself without noise.

You have felt it
in the restlessness between roles in the silence after knowing in the ache to live aligned, not explained.

This retreat is not an escape
but a deep return.

We are not here to teach, but to meet
not to fill, but to empty.

If your body softens as you read this if something inside you whispers
"Yes, I've been waiting..."

Then come.
We are already making space for you.

RETREAT OVERVIEW

This is not a journey toward the Divine. This is the quiet recognition that we are already of it.

Deepening in the Radiant ONE is an invitation to rest into the ever-present radiance of Divine awareness—already here, already alive within breath, body, and the subtle rhythms of Being. There is nothing to seek, amplify, or attain. We simply allow what is already true to reveal itself...and then we calibrate deeply with this truth.

Within the sacred stillness of The Christine Center, Mary and Lisa—along with their Divine guides—will immerse the group in channeled transmissions, meditations, and deep silence that shift awareness from searching to simply being. The Radiant ONE is not a distant presence. It is the ground beneath our feet, the stillness beneath words, the essence within form.

This retreat flows gently between guided sessions and inner stillness, offering:

- Multiple daily channeled transmissions
- Morning grounding and evening integration meditations
- Silent time in nature for reflection and communion
- Open dialogue and Q&A to support embodied integration
- Optional activities may include light yoga and a group energy attunement

ABOUT YOUR GUIDES

This is a unique opportunity to gather in the potent field of two people who have an extraordinary Divine connection.

Eleven years ago, while on holiday in Texas, Mary Reed had her first encounter with Lisa Dewey's spirit. The spirit showed up repeatedly to guide Mary when she began writing her first book. When Mary decided to return to the nunnery in India where she lived, the spirit playfully laughed, kissed the top of Mary's head, tousled her hair, and said, "See you there!"

To Mary's astonishment, three months later, she realized that Lisa—an American she barely knew at the nunnery—seemed to embody the spirit she had met. Lisa confirmed this in an unforgettable moment: she laughed with delight at something Mary said, kissed the top of her head, and tousled her hair, just as the spirit had done.

Since that profound recognition, Mary and Lisa have moved together through a remarkable cosmic unfolding—traveling the world, offering their presence in service. Their shared journey is not just one of companionship, but of deep resonance, where Love expresses itself in myriad forms for the benefit of All.

MARY REED

Mary is a mystic wisdom guide and conscious channel with a 24-year history of profound metaphysical experiences and channeling, extensively chronicled in four books. Her teachings and guidance are sourced solely from her direct encounters with Divine realms, entities, and wisdom. Mary's path to living in unitive consciousness began with a decade of intense confusion and upheaval but has since transformed into a journey of steady integration and peaceful reorientation. Today, she embodies this state with remarkable grace and tranquility.

LISA DEWEY

For 12 years, Lisa's spiritually transformative experiences were profound yet intermittent. Then, in April 2024, she experienced a complete dissolution of self—her "I" identity falling away entirely. This life-altering shift unraveled her sense of normalcy for weeks and required months of integration before she could fully re-engage with the world from a grounded place of wholeness.

Today, Lisa continues to acclimate to living in a state of unitive consciousness, which she describes simply as Pure Presence—a state effortlessly accessible and continually unfolding.
